FACJJ ISSUE AREA

Issue Area 2: Legislation

- What role, if any, should the FACJJ play as it relates to reauthorization of JJDPA? FACJJ's current bylaws state:
The Committee is to provide:
 - (1) advice to the Administrator on functions or aspects of the work of OJJDP; and
 - (2) advice to Congress and the President, through the Attorney General, regarding State perspectives on the operation of OJJDP, on legislation pertaining to juvenile justice and delinquency prevention and on any other matters as requested by OJJDP. Such advice may be provided in the form of memoranda, written responses to Office requests, briefings, consultations and/or reports.
- Are there any controversial issues around reauthorizations. If so, what recommendations do you have?
- What responsibilities does the FACJJ have to solicit SAG inputs, related to specific aspects of reauthorization?
 - What members are interested in participating in this scope of work? Either present subcommittee members or members from the larger FACJJ.
